VOL. 8 NEWSLETTER 32

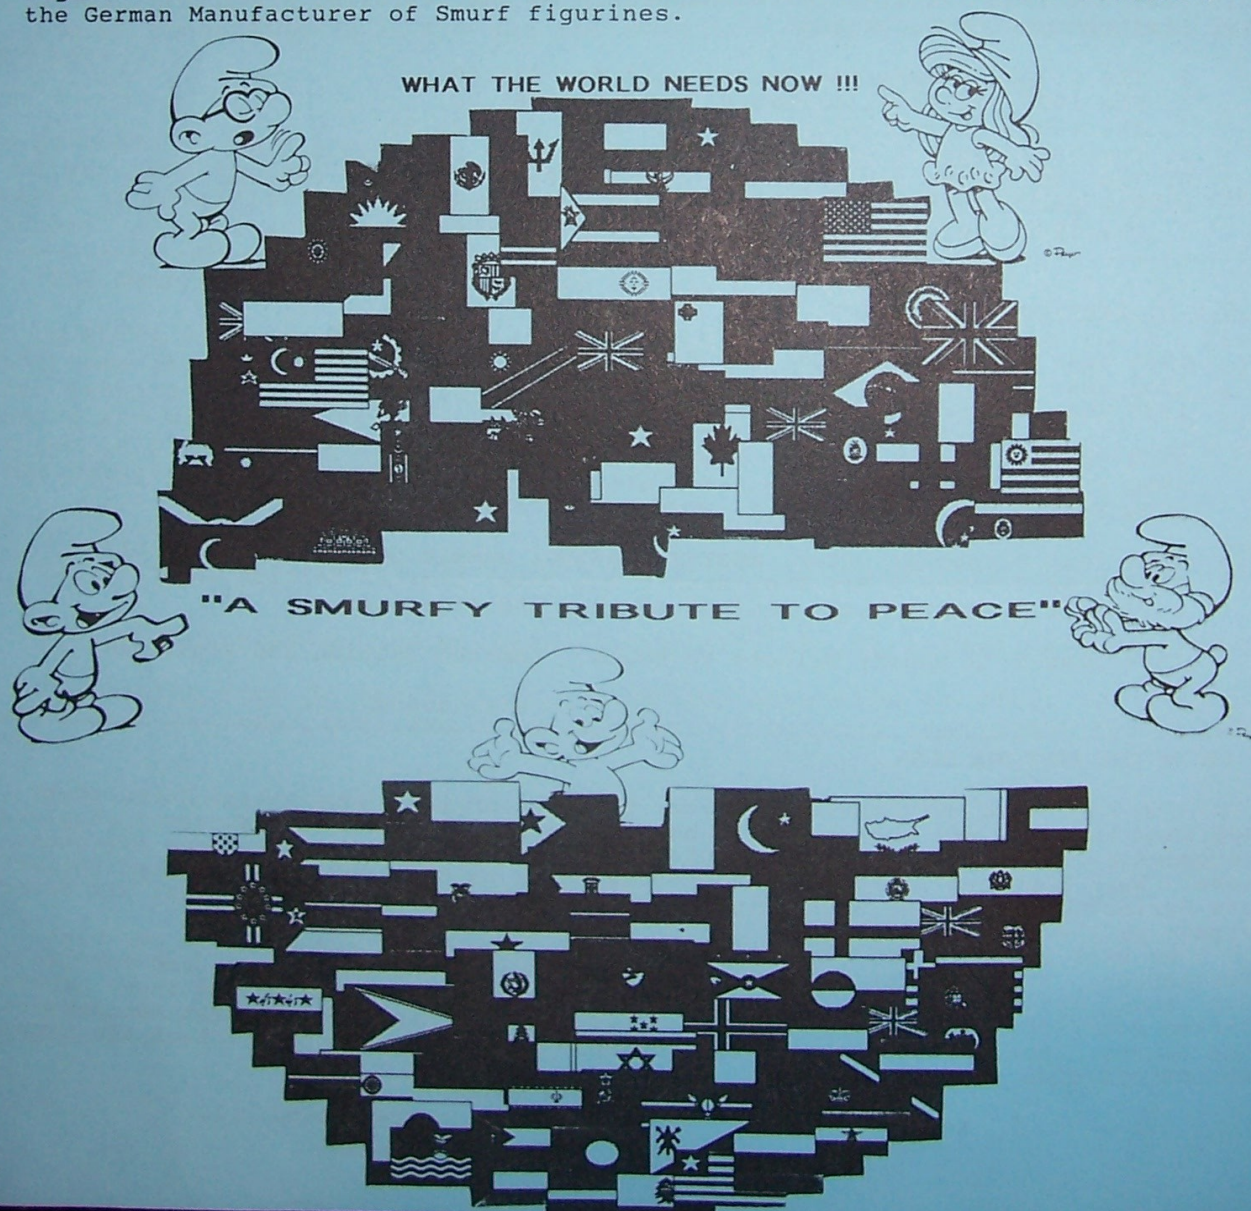

SPRING 1994

Dear Smurf Collectors:

Once again excitement mounts here, at Club Headquarters, as we prepare to announce the Club's 9th year Limited Edition Figurine. Yes, with this Newsletter, we have come to the close of another year, our eighth! Our 9th year will begin with Newsletter No.33.

As you can see, the Smurf featured on the 1993 European Poster (above) is embracing the World and watching it with a loving gaze. Doesn't this impart a warm and comforting feeling? The Club has chosen to pick up on this THEME and we present it to you with a sincere and Smurfy hope for World Peace.

We are happy to present the most meaningful S.C.C.I. Limited Edition figurine ever! Produced EXCLUSIVELY FOR S.C.C.I. MEMBERS ONLY from Schleich, the German Manufacturer of Smurf figurines.

Each "A SMURFY TRIBUTE TO PEACE" L.E. figurine will come with a NUMBERED CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY from the Smurf Collectors' Club International. Each figurine purchased will be REGISTERED with the Club and this information will be kept on file. If ownership should be transferred, the figurine must be accompanied by its Certificate of Authenticity and the Club is to be notified of the transaction. Following this procedure in transferring ownership protects the value of the Limited Edition figurine.

To newer members and to those who missed out on previous S.C.C.I. Limited Edition figurines, a gentle reminder: Each year the Limited Edition Club figurine is only available to the first 250 renewing members. With a yearly enrollment far exceeding that number, it is imperative that you submit your renewal within two weeks of receiving this notice if you hope to purchase one for your collection. After this two week period all new members, joining us for year 9, will become eligible to scoop one up for their collections. In the past, previously issued L.E. Club figurines sold out in a matter of weeks. These figurines have become highly sought-after as we all know.

And now for additional exciting news: Our Board of Directors were so inspired by this year's theme that, for the first time, we have carried it on to another exciting collectible item. A lovely, 1994, 2" Satin Ornament, with the PEACE theme, Club Logo and the Club Name. This has been produced as our FIRST Limited Edition Ornament. If it proves to be popular with you, our members, we expect to issue more in the years to come. The production size is 500 for these ornaments and they will be made available to all 9th year members while supply lasts. Ordering information will be found on your enclosed renewal application.

FROM THE EDITORS DESK...

The Smurfette Merchandising Blitz, featured in this Newsletter, launched by Applause in 1984, was what we would have considered a tremendous success! Applause recorded sales of $750 million in 1984! Yet, we are forced to ask some big questions. What happened in 1985? Whatever happened to the 1985 Smurf Limited Collectors Series? Sixteen new Smurf figures were promised. Why did the final six never appear on the U.S. market?

We will be searching for answers to these questions, and more, in our next Newsletter. We will take a look at the beginning of the end of the road for the U.S. Smurf Market. And, on a happier note, we will let you in on how three heart-broken Smurf Collectors met, united, and vowed to continue their quest for answers and Smurfs. How did the following few simple words lead to the start of the SMURF COLLECTORS CLUB in 1986:

"WANTED... HOLLY MAILMAN SMURF"

Stay tuned.....

Suzanne

Dear S.C.C.I.;

I enjoyed reading the Nostalgia article in our last Newsletter, "The Little Card Shop going out of Business." It brought back memories of "The Good Old Days." Back in 1980, my son, then six years old, would run off the School Bus every day and telephone a little card shop in our area that carried Smurfs. His most exciting days were when he was told "THE SHIPMENT IS IN!" With great zeal he would yell out "Mom, the shipment of Smurfs is in, let's go." No matter how busy I was I had to drop everything and take him to the Smurf store.

Most of the time the Smurf parcels were not even opened yet by the shopkeeper. My son's face would light up with excitement when the manager of the store would open the cartons and let my son be the first to see what was new.

He shouted in glee as each new item appeared. Talk about variations, he really knew his figurines! He could spot a paint variation at once; it was amazing to me. I'd tell him, "We have that Smurf" and he would say, "No Mommy, this one is different from the one I have." Ten times out of ten he was right! He never missed a variation. He never failed. But Mom did. Sometimes there were so many new figurines and supers that I had to say NO to his variations. These were the days I'm still kicking myself about. All those paint variations we would love to have today.

Does anyone remember the Christmas of 1981? It was almost impossible to find the new Gargamel & Azrael Super Smurf. The stores had sold out in a matter of a few hours. It wasn't until January of 1982 that we were able to locate one. I remember our "Smurf Shop" had a huge sign painted for their window:

GARGAMEL AND AZRAEL ARE HERE!!!!!!!!!!

I miss those GOOD OLD DAYS and the exciting "MOM A SMURF SHIPMENT IS IN, LET'S GO!"

A TRUE BLUE FAN

Dear Suzanne;

I was able to find two tumblers of the Fifth Series, Mc Donald's cups, featured in Newsletter 30. I noticed that a description of graphics was not available. I will try to describe it.

"The Smurfs visit Racing River at Canada's Wonderland"

It shows a group of five Smurfs in front of a castle and the racing rivers. Beside them is a Smurfette with a Smurf with a flower on his hat and holding a mirror sitting on the grass laughing and pointing to Papa Smurf. Smurfette is laughing and waving to Papa Smurf too, who is just coming down the racing Rivers on a purple pillow with a white Baby Smurf on his lap, which is carrying a rattle. In the background are two Smurfs in a balloon.

Isa from Canada

Dear Suzanne;

I enjoyed the Latest Newsletter, especially the Christmas catalog photos.

The letter from Jo Ann from NV. caught my attention as well, about the same molds being used over and over, I also had noticed that other molds were repeated.

Here are some of the examples that I observed: #20057 Thirsty was also used for #20152 Miller. Number 20067 Congratulations was used for #20125 Heart. Number 20136 Pumpkin was used for #20160 Green Apple and #1 Teacher Red Apple and Super Smurf #20247 Jokey w/ trick box.

Greg from Kansas

Dear Greg and All Members:

Off hand, I can think of at least one more mold that was used twice! Let's have some fun! Can anyone tell us ?

COLLECTORS' COMMENTS...

Dear Suzanne,

In Newsletter #31 there was an Ad that caught my eye:

Ad #610 Stated: "Super Smurf #40202, Chimney Sweep,
W. German, Seven step ladder, Mint.

I always read all ads very carefully as I pick-up information on variations to add to my collection or, if I miss out on an Ad, at least I know about the variation and add it to my want list.

Upon checking my Chimney Sweep Supers, I find they all have the ladder you describe, yet I feel I must be missing something because of the way the Ad was written. I have re-read all my back-issue Newsletters (my Smurfy Bible, so to speak) and I can't find any information on this Super.

Would you please explain the wording of this Ad and let me know if I missed something.

Cherly from La.

Dear Cherly and All Members,

You are 100% correct! There was a reason for the Ad being worded as it was!

Although we have not gotten into Super Smurf variations yet in our Newsletters, a few MAJOR variations are listed in the Super Smurf Section of the Club Brochure. This Chimney Sweep variation has not appeared before.

In 1978, when Chimney Sweep was first issued, the ladder had 4 steps (rungs). Around 1983, the ladder was changed to 7 steps (rungs).

See below:

Original Issue
#40202
with 4 rung ladder.

Later Issue
#40202
with 7 rung
ladder

Dear Suzanne,

After reading your very informative article about the Mc Donalds Canadian Cups I remembered that, among my vast collection, I have a rather Rare Hardee's Fast Food display stand.

This display was featured in 1983 by Hardee's to show off the 6 Smurf glasses they gave away as premiums that year.

"Smurfdays Party Glasses"
Collect all six!

The display has a top slot to display the one glass being featured that week.

APPLAUSE: WE MAKE SMILES

"Sometimes it gets a little spooky working here. I'll be hunched over my desk, drawing, late at night, and I'll start thinking I hear giggles. Used to bother me. Now I just shake my head and figure those Smurfs™ are up to their mischief again."

At Applause, our people believe in our products just as much as our customers. Which is why everything we make—from plush and ceramic collectibles, to stickers and displays, pencils and mugs—each carries a special touch that is uniquely ours.

We like to think of it as the Applause personality. And it's a distinct and very important part of our company philosophy. Because it not only influences the way our people think, create and interact, it also touches the way we treat our customers.

The way we see it is this: when we can make a customer smile over the phone with our friendly service, when we can make a customer grin over the charm of our products and displays, we feel we've succeeded as individuals. And as a company.

After all, what could be more rewarding than making someone smile?

Smiles begin over and over at Applause in much the same way.

A team of Art, Marketing and Production people get together. They talk. They listen. They always laugh a lot. And they think. And after all the marketing research and industry trends, focus group data and material innovations have been considered, the rewarding, yet sometimes difficult process begins:

The search for ideas.
And then it happens.
Like magic.

And while we don't use a rigid formula to approve the hundreds of products we create, there is one rule here at Applause that's never broken:

The end result of every product has to be a smile.

After all the thought and care we put into creating an Applause smile, we'd never turn the responsibility of its production over to someone else.

We keep an extremely close watch on every single phase of the process. In fact, we maintain two offices overseas that are completely staffed with our own Applause designers, production supervisors and inspection experts.

That way we can be sure that what started out as a smile doesn't end up as a frown.

In some ways, when we finish a family of products, it's just the beginning. We never stop nurturing it and helping it along.

Sometimes that means creating special packaging, displays or point-of-purchase materials.

Sometimes it means taking the time to find out what a particular customer wants in terms of specific promotions.

And sometimes it means simply looking the product over every now and then, just to make sure the smile isn't fading.

We've grown quite a bit over the years, from a small local group to a large, international corporation.

But we haven't lost sight of where and why we started.

So while we design, market, produce, distribute and license all over the world, we make sure two things never change:

We continue to make smiles.
And we try to wear them, too.

It is with a smile and a great deal of pride that we present the Applause product line for 1984.

SMURFS™ DOUBLE YOUR FUN.

No one can feel blue around the Smurfs™!

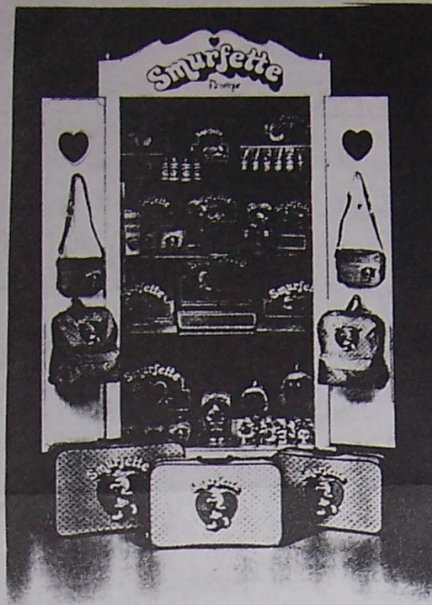

Their smiles, their mischief, their irresistibly charming personalities make them a natural when it comes to livening up everything from pens and pencils to notepads and erasers.

As a result, Smurfs™ popularity with children and adults has mushroomed—they even have their own nationwide "Fun Club!"

They host a #1 Emmy Award Winning Television program. They're making special TV appearances and sponsoring charities. They're at the Ice Capades and theme parks. They've given birth to a new Smurf™—"Baby Smurf™"—which is extremely exciting, since a baby Smurf arrives via stork only once in a blue moon.

So we've had a lot of fun busily creating a wonderful array of new Smurf™ products to meet the demand.

The new and very feminine Smurfette™ Boutique, complete with pretty colors and hearts, is filled with

MORE ABOUT THE "SMURFETTE BIRTHDAY CERAMICS". .....

We would be negligent if we did not do more than show a photo of these porcelain Smurfette figurines.

Many of our members have expressed the feeling that this set is one of the most beautiful and treasured items in their collections.

Through information we have gathered over the years, it seems apparent that numerous areas of the U.S. never had this series for sale. Many of our collectors have told us they never knew about or even saw this series.

Various sources have informed us that production was limited to just one firing which could mean that only a few thousand were produced; nowhere near the production number one would expect.

This series was produced in beautiful pastel colors with lovely feminine details. A description of each figurine follows:

- Number One: Smurfette, standing with a Teddy Bear-topped "ONE." Another Teddy Bear is seated at the base of the number.
- Number Two: Smurfette, seated on the base of the "TWO." Balloons "float" atop the number.
- Number Three: Smurfette, leaning against the "THREE." She holds a pretty bouquet of flowers.
- Number Four: Smurfette, holding a watering can, with the "FOUR." A flower-filled pot is perched on the number.
- Number Five: Smurfette, with parasol, leaning against the "FIVE."
- Number Six: Smurfette ballerina, on pointe, beside her number "SIX."
- Number Seven: Smurfette holding the "SEVEN." Butterfly perched atop the number.
- Number Eight: Smurfette, wearing ice skates, holding the "EIGHT."
- Number Nine: Smurfette with the "NINE," her kite "flying" on top of the number.
- Number Ten: Smurfette with the "TEN." She is wearing rollerskates and is seated inside the zero.
- Number Eleven: Smurfette, as a very enthusiastic Cheerleader, with the "ELEVEN."
- Number Twelve: Smurfette, holding a single flower, seated on the two of the "TWELVE."

No doubt about it: These figurines are all charming and well-designed. Obviously, a good deal of thought went into their creation, from the choice of lovely pastel colors to the extra feminine touches that are perfectly suited to Smurfette (flowers and little birds, for example). To our minds, here at Club Headquarters, the dotted swiss effect given to the numbers is the icing on the cake! Bravo, artists, wherever you may be!

Interesting to note this series bears the markings: Wallace Berrie, 1983.

If you have this series, or remember seeing it in your area, we would love to hear from you. We are still attempting to track the original distribution areas of these beautiful porcelain figurines. Please write to us!

FROM THE.....

Did you know we air a full hour of The Smurfs nearly every day on the Cartoon Network? That's right! From 10-11AM Monday through Friday and from 8-9AM on Sundays, The Smurfs rule. If you don't get the Cartoon Network in your town you ought to call your cable operator and ask for it!

From time to time we also do special Smurf stuff. January, in fact, is Smurf month at the Cartoon Network and last Saturday January 15, from noon to 8PM (ET), the Cartoon Network aired back-to-back episodes of The Smurfs. Viewers were invited to gather with friends, listen for the word "Smurf" or a variation thereof and scream their heads off with recognition. Yep, it was the first annual Smurf's Scream-A-Thon.

I would love to be placed on your mailing list and I will keep you abreast of all the important Smurf happenings that take place during the year.

MOLD VARIATION

The Question: I have two of the same figurine, but one is taller than the other.
Why?

Thick, high feet.
(This makes the figurine a fraction taller).

Thinner flatter feet.
(This makes the figurine a fraction shorter).

If you study your Smurfs closely, you will notice this variation on molds: #20002, 05, 018, 036, 067, 070, 071, 074, 079, 082, 087, 089.

Do you have others? Write and let us know!
