EDITOR'S DESK...

Dear Members,

Please take special note of our Newsletter's Front Page! This wonderful Holiday Greeting Card was received from IMPS & signed by Veronique Culliford (Peyo's Daughter). This message was addressed to the S.C.C.I. and ALL It's MEMBERS!

We, at Club Headquarters, also extend wishes for a Joyous Holiday and a New Year filled with the best of everything for all!!!

Board of Directors S.C.C.I.

As discussed in our last Newsletter, we have been reviewing and working on the translation of the Kinder-egg German Price Guide issued last year.

We are glad to report that our Club Newsletters have been almost completely thorough in covering the Kinder-egg Smurf figurines and a few other Smurfy Kinder-egg items.

See our back-issue Newsletters No.9, No.15, No.17 and No. 25, for Club articles on Ferrero Kinder-Eggs.

In this Newsletter we are updating the above-mentioned articles with a few items we omitted.

"A LITTLE HISTORY"

The First Kinder-Egg was produced in the mid 1960's. Known in Germany as "Uberraschung Eiers" (Surprise Eggs).

Plastic figures about 1" in size, were their first issues. Approximately 30 different series of cartoon characters, consisting of ten plastic figurines in each set, have been produced. Metal figurines were also made. Following these, self-assembled plastic toys...cars, trains, planes, boats, etc. were produced. Little puzzles were also manufactured and packed inside the Kinder-Eggs.

Some of the toys came with a photo sheet of all the toys in the series. See our previous articles for samples of these sheets. These sheets add value to the items and are highly sought after as well.

Why have these kinder-Eggs never appeared in the U.S.? Simply stated, a toy inside candy violates U.S. Food & Safety regulations and is banned in the U.S.A. Ferrero does distribute other candies etc. in the U.S. Have you noticed who makes Tic Tacs?

As for our investigation into the reported fact that prices in Europe are 2 to 3 times higher than the price guide values from 1993, we have been, as yet, unable to prove this to be true. Our European staff reports the following:

1. All Ferrero Kinder-egg Toys are showing up at Flea Markets.
2. Mint condition figurines, complete with all pieces and stickers have become increasingly difficult to locate.
3. The 1988 series of Smurf Soccer Players should bear stickers on their shirts. Don't be fooled; without these they are worth less. This is a little-known fact, as many collectors did not realize they should have stickers. You heard it from your Club first! See our original article. Also, be aware that some of these Soccer Players came with separate Soccer Balls.
4. Of highest value is the 1990 Series, as these figurines were snap-together Smurfs with stickers for eyes. The Price Guide listed prices for these, translated into dollars from DM at $13 to $14 each. These prices do not take into account the reports of prices being 2 to 3 times higher today than the 1993 published prices.

KINDER-EGG UPDATE
Article Featured in Newsletter 9
Summer 1988

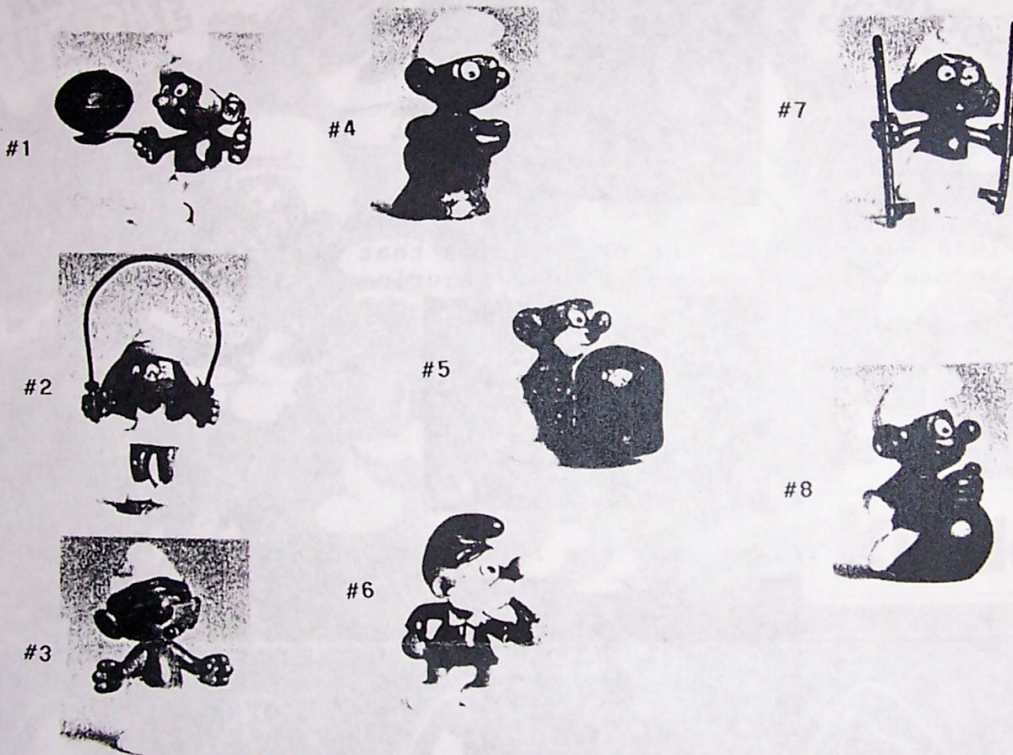

On the second page of the above mentioned article, we showed three early Kinder-Egg Smurf figurines. At that time little was known about this series.

We are now pleased to up-date this information!

This Smurf Figurine Series was called Olympiade der Schlumpfe (Olympics for the Smurfs). It was produced in 1983, and there were eight figurines in this series.

1. Eierlauf-Schlumpf (Egg Race Smurf).
2. Hupf-Schlumpfinchen (Jumping Smurfette).
3. Such-Schlumpf (Search Smurf).
4. Sackhupf-Schlumpf (Sack Race Smurf).
5. Negerkub-Schlumpf (Sorry, we don't care to print translation)
6. Schiri-Schlumpf (Schiri? Papa Smurf blowing whistle).
7. Steizen-Schlumpf (Stilts Smurf).
8. Hupfball-Schlumpf (Hop Ball Smurf).

Shown below is the complete series. One interesting fact we should mention is that Numbers 1, 2, and 7 are quoted in the price guide at 700 DM. These three numbers have separate parts! These are very, very, rare!

KINDER-EGG UPDATE

Summer 1992

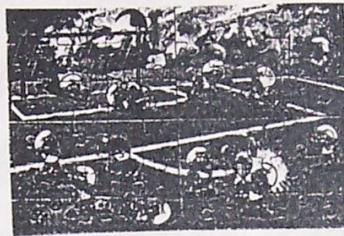

Kinder-Maxi Egg Surprise

The price guide is incomplete on this series. The guide does not show nor mention the Airplane with Smurf that was in this promotion and we featured.

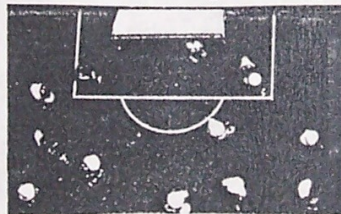

The guide does, however, show TWO Smurf houses; only one was shown in our original article. See both houses below:

In 1988, Ferrero also produced, and included in a Kinder-Egg, a "Super-Puzzle" of Smurfs playing soccer. We did not mention this item in the article but, if we remember correctly, we did have one for sale in our Ad section. See the puzzle below:

Also in 1988, we noted in the price guide that Ferrero produced a display Soccer Field to use with the Soccer Player figurines. See Below:

A Store Display by Ferrero for the 1983 Smurf Series was also produced. See below:

Not listed in the Price Guide was a Mini Camera with a Smurf film inside. See below:

.....And, just when we thought the subject of Ferrero Smurf Kinder-Eggs was finally complete, the following information arrived at S.C.C.I. Headquarters. The author of the German Price Guide probably does not even know this rare items exists.

KINDER SURPRISE BOX

1990 IMPS

The Surprise Box is plastic and measures 8½" by 12" wide, with a carrying handle on top. Once again it features "Peyo's" marvelous Artwork! Shown below is the cover artwork. The inside cover artwork features Papa Smurf, also Great!

NO MENTION OF FERRERO!! ONLY IMPS!!

All twelve of the Smurf Figurines produced by Ferrero in the 1990 series are put together (snapped together) complete with stickers and are displayed inside the box in their own individual compartments!

This was a delightful and rare discovery!!

COLLECTORS' COMMENTS...

Dear S.C.C.I.,

I enjoy reading about other collectors in the Club. So I would like to share my collecting story with the Club members!

My dad started buying Smurfs for me when I was a baby. They used to be my favorite thing to play with and my parents thought they were cute. My parents later went on vacation to Los Angeles. They found a store called the "Smurf Store" on Hollywood Boulevard that sold nothing but Smurf memorabilia. They bought as many Smurfs as they could.

When I got a little older, whenever I played with my Smurfs, I always used to lose them. My parents say they would spend hours looking for them all. Once they found Shiver Smurf in a heating vent. Fortunately, none of my Smurfs were ever permanently lost and very few were damaged.

My parents and I would always look in our local toy stores to see if there were any new Smurfs. Eventually, we could no longer find Smurfs anywhere. We thought that the Smurfs had been discontinued because the only Smurfs we knew of were the Smurfs listed on the Schleich poster "Here we are everyone of us." The Smurfs we had that were not on the poster we thought were a few made after the poster was produced. We always kept our eyes open for more of these figures. One day when we were at a antique sale we saw Smurfs. So we know look at antique sales for Smurfs.

Three years ago my Smurf collection was displayed in the Kinuso Museum. Kinuso is a small town outside of Edmonton. They did a very nice job setting up my Smurf collection. They used cardboard and wood to make ice rinks, lakes, farm fields, roads and a bandstand. My collection was displayed during collection month when the area schools had field trips. All the kids wrote to the museum saying how much they loved the Smurf display. I have volunteered to let the museum display my collection again after I have more Smurfs for the new kids to see.

Last year, on my birthday, I met a member of the S.C.C.I. at an antique sale. She told us about the Club and we talked about Smurfs. She gave us the Club's address and now I am a member.

Chris M. from Canada

Dear Chris and All Members,

Thanks for "SHARING." Does anyone have any further information on the "Smurf Store" mentioned in Chris's story? We'd love to hear more about it!

Suzanne

Dear Suzanne,

I would like to update the article in Newsletter 19, Winter 1990 about the Pewter Smurfs.

I have #20029 Money Smurf in Pewter dated 1980!!!

Charlotte from Mi.

Dear S.C.C.I.,

We understand that, at sometime in the past, there was a Jig Saw Puzzle created with Smurf figures who are playing chess. We have been trying to find same to add to our Chess Museum.

Perhaps you or your members know of the existence of this item and where and how we might be able to obtain a copy.

L.I. Chess Museum

Dear Members,

Can anyone help? Please let us know!

Suzanne

Dear Suzanne,

I have just purchased a Bully display house that you featured in Newsletter 30. Of special interest is the fact that the one I purchased is Smurf Blue! You did not list a blue one in the article.

Jerry B. from Vt.

Dear Jerry,

Thanks for the update. As you mention, even though the display house is Smurf Blue, it does not bear the marking "Peyo" so it was produced as a Universal display item; not for Smurg figurines in particular, but for any and all Bully 2" PVC figurines.

Suzanne

Dear Suzanne,

I have some of the "Pirated" Smurfs featured in Newsletter 34. There is one not listed: Smurf with a book under his left arm.

R.F. from Germany

COLLECTORS' COMMENTS...

Dear Suzanne,

I was on a short trip with my sister and purchased two Smurfs from Kings Island Amusement Park. They both have moving parts and I was told they used to be part of a Smurf ride they had at the park. They both are four feet tall. I found them in a hidden-away antique store in the hills. I'm so excited to have a one-of-a-kind Smurf collectible.

Kerri from Mi.

Dear Suzanne,

Has anyone seen the article "Collector Demand Presses Push-Puppet Prices Higher" by Jon Brecka? It was really interesting to see featured the Smurf Push-Puppet from 1982. The author had a large 6½" photo of the Helm Smurf, and mentions various Smurfs were produced as Push-Puppets. He valued them at $6 to $8 dollars. WOW!

Linda from Wy.

Dear Linda,

Thanks for the info. and for supplying us with a copy of the article. Another cross-over collectible to keep an eye on. Any members interested in reading this article should write and send us a S.A.S.E. for a copy.

Suzanne

Dear Suzanne,

Did you know that Pez and Kinder-Eggs were withdrawn from the England Market a few years ago? They were suspected of being used in drug distribution!

William from England

Dear William,

Yes, we did hear a number of years ago that Pez items were withdrawn from the European Market and we did report this fact to our members. The Kinder-Egg fact is new to us! Thanks for the information.

Suzanne

Dear S.C.C.I.,

I just acquired an Old Smurf Poster "Smurf Jamboree." This was produced by Schleich for Gans Bros. in Canada. Of special interest is the fact that two figurines, #20498, Johan and #20499, Pewit are mis-named. They appear on the poster as #20498 JOHN and #20499 WILLIAM! Can this be explained?

R.S. from Ok.

Dear R.S.,

We have been unable to get a complete explanation for this! We have been told that JOHN is the English form for Johan! The names also appear the same on the "Here We Are Everyone of Us" poster also produced for Gans Bros. and featured in Newsletter 23.

Suzanne

Dear Suzanne,

I think I have a very unusual collectors story to share with the Club Members!

I COLLECT ONLY PAPA SMURF COLLECTIBLES!!!

Why you ask???

When my first granddaughter was born (1979), I was only 38 years old and did not wish to be called Grandma, Granny or Grandmother. I thought I was too "young" for that....so I chose to be called Grams. Well, not long afterward, the Kenner Co. came out with the Care Bears and a cute grey bear with a pink shawl they named Grams Bear. Since I was already Grams I had to have one.

My husband couldn't be left out and have his feelings hurt, so my immediate thought turned to Papa Smurf for my husband. He had chosen to be called Papa because that is what he had called his grandfather.

We have had a Grams Bear and a Papa Smurf sitting arm in arm, snuggling together on a stool in our bedroom since the early 80's. When my grandchildren (we now have seven) see Papa Smurf they immediately think of their Papa.

Being the collector that I am, I naturally began picking up Papa Smurf items at flea markets, garage sales and antique shops. Just recently I found a Coke crate in great shape and thought our PAPAS would be so cute standing in the openings if I hung it on the wall (Red with the red etc.) The Papas do look great in it!

Now, with the Club's help my collection is growing and will be even better! Thanks for the help! Anyone have a Papa Smurf item for me? I am really interested in small items because of space. It would be interesting to see how large a collection I can put together of just PAPAS. Are there any pictures or Postcards of just Papa Smurf? I would be interested in these also. Thanks.

B.M from Al.

Dear B.M.,

Thank you for your unusal collecting story. Can anyone help with Papa Smurf small collectibles? Papa has all of his 2" figurines and Supers.

Suzanne

COLLECTORS' COMMENTS...

Hi, you all at S.C.C.I. Headquarters,

Thanks for your warm welcome to me as a new member of your great Club! I am sure, from the information you all have already provided, your Club will be a truly wonderful learning experience. I started collecting these delightful little blue imps just a few years ago and I know I have a lot of catching up to do. What fun this is!!!

I do have a question for you all. Wallace Berrie, American Market figurines and numbers are referred to in the Club's Identification Guide, as coming from the "Blue Moon Poster." Can this be explained? What is this all about? Please and thanks to you all!

Jodi from S.C.

Dear Jodi & all members who have asked about the "Blue Moon Poster,"

You have brought a point to our attention that is very important as of late. We now have numerous collectors in the S.C.C.I. that did not start collecting Smurfs until 1985 and later. We realize from your letter, and many others that we have received, that we have to back-up a bit, we also see that not all of our collectors started collecting in the late 70's and early 80's. Also, with our vast increase of European members not as familiar with the Wallace Berrie, American Market line, we should devote some additional Newsletter articles to these issues.

The "Blue Moon Poster" by Wallace Berrie (featured on next page) was issued in 1983/84. It shows their line of 2" Smurf figurines from December 1978 to 1984. They issued this poster with their 6000 series numbers which we do publish in our Club Identification Catalog. We, the S.C.C.I., do not use these numbers as they are far from complete and are not representative of the complete line of 2" Smurf Figurines, Super Smurfs, Playsets etc. The Schleich numbering system is complete!

As long as we are on the Topic of the "Blue Moon Poster" this is a good time to call everyone's attention to the fact that there are two errors on this poster!

Their Smurf Figurine #6144, Hammer, shows the wrong figurine.

Wrong Figurine

Correct Figurine

Their Smurf Figurine #6207, Touch Football, also shows the wrong figurine.

Wrong Figurine

Correct Figurine

The "Blue Moon Poster" is in full color and measures 26" by 17". On the bottom of the poster (not shown) is a listing of each figurine's number (6000 series), name, whether it is retired (*R), date issued in the U.S. Please keep in mind that the Wallace Berrie issue dates are not the original issue dates. The S.C.C.I. Identification Guide has the ORIGINAL ISSUE DATES from Schleich. The FIRST 2" Smurf Figurine was issued in 1965, not December, 1978!

OMO LAUNDRY DETERGENT

PROMOTION

FROM FRANCE

Does everyone remember our article in Newsletter 4, Spring 1987, and Newsletter 6, Fall 1987, in which we discussed the "OMO Laundry Detergent" Promotional (Advertising) 2" Smurf figurines?

One of the figurines discussed was Smurf #20136 holding a "OMO" box of detergent (see box below, actual size).

We also discussed other promotional (advertising) figurines produced for "OMO" by Schleich in the aforementioned articles.

We have now been informed, by a member in France, that a series of 1" PVC Smurf figurines was produced for the "OMO" Laundry Detergent promotion. These little all blue Smurf figurines are embossed with "OMO" on their heads.

It has not been verified as to how many of these figurines were inside a single box of detergent, nor how many different Smurfs and Smurfettes were represented.

We have verified that the following thirteen different figurines with "OMO" embossed on their heads were produced:

- | | |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. #20023 Rock 'n Roll Smurf | 7. #20050 Pointing Smurf |
| 2. #20031 Postman Smurf | 8. #20062 Telephone Smurf |

COUNTER DISPLAYS

Within a few short months of the Smurfs introduction in the United States, January 1979, Wallace Berrie announced that the Smurf's success was instantaneous! The number one character in the U.S. for 1980 was the Smurfs!

Retailers were clearing out their shops, devoting large sections of their shops to SMURFS!

Wallace Berrie now realized Corrugated Cardboard Smurf Displays were out!

In 1980, Wallace Berrie began producing molded Plastic Smurf Display cases for 2" Smurf Figurines and Super Smurfs. These were available to retail stores only and not produced for collectors to purchase! As you will note, many of these displays were designed to either sit on a counter top or mounted on a wall. The swivel counter displays were strictly for counter tops.

COUNTER DISPLAYS

This plastic display case for 2" Smurf figurines, number D-51 was, without a doubt, the most popular of all display cases. How many of us attempted to purchase one from our favorite Smurf retailer? Unfortunately, by 1985/86 when the shops were ready to part with them, the front plastic covers were either missing or in poor condition.
